Sam Lee is one of those rare voices that will make a permanent impact on the modern American music landscape. A rocking singer-songwriter native to Denver, Colorado, he now makes his home in Nashville, TN. The Denver Westword says “Dude puts his money where his mouth is: he’s got some incredibly powerful vocal chops and he belts with considerable conviction...Fortunately, he’s also got a knack for penning upbeat, catchy tunes”

Sam’s songs carry heavy doses of classic Americana-Rock influences; from the rollicking, rolling drive-along songs, to the soulful, stripped-naked ballads, to the bombastic rock-belters. With anthemic choruses, and clever, honest lyrics, Sam Lee is burning down the house.

Touring coast to coast, Sam recently finished five new music videos and is currently working on 3rd studio album, to be released in 2015.
